THE CONVENTION.

The Convention met at 9 o'clock. Mr. [illegible] in the chair. The roll was called, and a quorum found present. Prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. [illegible].

Mr. HICK, of Cook, moved to take up the report of the Committee on Revenue.

Mr. HAWLEY, of Cook, moved to amend the motion by striking out the report of the Committee on Revenue, and inserting in lieu thereof the report of the Committee of the Whole, which was adopted.

Mr. ANTHONY, of Cook, moved to amend the report by striking out the word "white" before the word "male," in the first line of the first section.

Mr. HAWLEY, of Cook, opposed the motion. He thought the word "white" should be retained. He was opposed to the negro voting.

Mr. ANTHONY, of Cook, said he was in favor of the negro voting. He was in favor of universal suffrage. He was in favor of the negro voting, because he was a man, and because he was entitled to the rights of a man. He was in favor of the negro voting, because he was a citizen of the United States, and because he was entitled to the rights of a citizen. He was in favor of the negro voting, because he was a taxpayer, and because he was entitled to the rights of a taxpayer. He was in favor of the negro voting, because he was a soldier, and because he was entitled to the rights of a soldier. He was in favor of the negro voting, because he was a patriot, and because he was entitled to the rights of a patriot. He was in favor of the negro voting, because he was a Christian, and because he was entitled to the rights of a Christian. He was in favor of the negro voting, because he was a human being, and because he was entitled to the rights of a human being. He was in favor of the negro voting, because he was a man, and because he was entitled to the rights of a man. He was in favor of the negro voting, because he was a citizen of the United States, and because he was entitled to the rights of a citizen of the United States.
